Table note:

- During 2022/23, a function was introduced to the prisoner kiosks enabling people in prison to submit allegations against staff directly. The increase in the number of allegations from 2022/23 appears to be related to this new function. The majority of these allegations have closure codes indicating they were entered in error, withdrawn by the complainant, referred to a different complaints process (as they did not relate to misconduct by a staff member), or not upheld.
