

Location	Supplier	Date notice issued	Length in days	Reason	Action from the Authority
Past year (26/07/24 – 25/07/25)
Woodville	Tararua District Council	25/3/25	6	Response to pest contamination of the treated water reservoir	Direction issued in May 2024
Balmoral Rural	Hurunui District Council	22/4/25	Still in place	As interim risk management where the necessary treatment barrier is not in place.	Expectations letter 11 April 2025
Ranfurly	Central Otago District Council	14/7/25	Still in place	As interim risk management where the necessary treatment barrier is not in place.	Expectations letter 14 April 2025
Patearoa	Central Otago District Council	14/7/25	Still in place	As interim risk management where the necessary treatment barrier is not in place.	Expectations letter 14 April 2025
Riverlands Industrial	Marlborough District Council	18/7/25	Still in place	As interim risk management where the necessary treatment barrier is not in place.	Expectations letter 8 May 2025
Havelock	Marlborough District Council	18/7/25	Still in place	As interim risk management where the necessary treatment barrier is not in place.	Expectations letter 8 May 2025
Eighty Eight Valley	Tasman District Council	3/4/25	Still in place	As interim risk management where the necessary treatment barrier is not in place.	Expectations letter 11 April 2025
Redwood Valley 1	Tasman District Council	15/5/25	Still in place	As interim risk management where the necessary treatment barrier is not in place.	Expectations letter 11 April 2025
Redwood Valley 2	Tasman District Council	15/5/25	Still in place	As interim risk management where the necessary treatment barrier is not in place.	Expectations letter 11 April 2025
The past five years (21/03/20211 - 26/07/2024)
Queenstown	Queenstown Lakes District Council	29/9/23	79	Response to cryptosporidiosis outbreak. The supplier had issued a boil water notice; however, the compliance order required it to remain in place until a protozoa barrier was installed or an alternate safe supply of water was provided.	Compliance order issued in September 2023