

As Minister Responsible for the GCSB, I can confirm I received the following items of written advice:

Date	Item
1 December 2023	Responding to malicious Russian cyber activity targeting democratic institutions
7 December 2023	Joint Cyber Security Advisory - Russian FSB cyber actor Star Blizzard continues worldwide spear-phishing campaigns
17 January 2024	Overview of the GCSB's National Cyber Security Centre
1 February 2024	Request to join cyber security advisory naming the People's Republic of China
26 February 2024	March Baseline Update submission for Vote Communications Security and Intelligence
26 February 2024	Commercial partners increase Malware Free Networks coverage
14 March 2024	CERT NZ - Quarter Four Cyber Security Insights release and Annual Summary
19 March 2024	Division of cyber security ministerial responsibilities
5 April 2024	Budget 2024 Finalisation
24 April 2024	Meeting with Roger Beaumont, Chief Executive of the New Zealand Banking Association
29 April 2024	Meeting with Palo Alto Networks
30 April 2024	Vulnerability Insights Programme
6 May 2024	Malicious cyber activity affecting IPAC

In addition, I can confirm I received the following items as the responsible Minister for both the GCSB and the NZSIS. Some titles listed below as summarised, to protect national security and international relations interests.

Date	Item
28 November 2023	Briefing to the Incoming Minister
13 December 2023	Briefing note: Threat environment and our response
13 December 2023	Briefing note: Financial overview
13 December 2023	Briefing note: Key policy initiatives for the GCSB and NZSIS portfolios
13 December 2023	Post Operation Burnham Detention Policy
20 December 2023	National Security Risk Assessment for payload permit application
20 December 2023	National Security Risk Assessment for payload permit application
17 January 2024	National Security Risk Assessment for payload permit application
18 January 2024	Priorities for GCSB and NZSIS portfolios
19 January 2024	National Security Risk Assessment for payload permit application
24 January 2024	Proactive Release of 2023 Briefing to the Incoming Minister
26 January 2024	National Security Risk Assessment licence application
26 January 2024	National Security Risk Assessment for payload permit application
26 January 2024	Budget 2024 savings options for GCSB and NZSIS
8 February 2024	National Security Risk Assessment for licence application
8 February 2024	Aide Memoire - Cabinet paper related to New Zealand's Foreign Policy
13 February 2024	Budget 2024 Savings Proposals for GCSB and NZSIS for submission
20 February 2024	National Security Risk Assessment for payload permit application
21 February 2024	National Security Risk Assessment for payload permit application
22 February 2024	Report on Upcoming Issues
27 February 2024	Intelligence and Security Act Review - Government Response

29 February 2024	Report on Upcoming Issues
14 March 2024	Report on Upcoming Issues
14 March 2024	Publication of GCSB and NZSIS Strategies
4 April 2024	Report on Upcoming Issues
18 April 2024	Report on Upcoming Issues
2 May 2024	Report on Upcoming Issues
16 May 2024	Report on Upcoming Issues

There is a longstanding precedent around not confirming or denying matters which may be of interest to the intelligence agencies. It is not in the public interest to disclose any other advice I may or may not have received in these portfolios.