

WPQ 56194(2025): What is the total cost, if any, associated with the use of Non-Disclosure Agreements in each of the entities for which the Minister is responsible since 27 November 2023, including any legal, administrative, or settlement-related expenditure, broken down by month?

I am advised that Television New Zealand does not collect this information. I'm further advised, due to the low number of agreements, the Broadcasting Commission is not disclosing the total cost to protect individuals privacy. Additionally, the Broadcasting Standards Authority has entered into no such agreements, therefore the costs associated are zero.

Regarding Radio New Zealand, I am advised that due to the low number of settlements, this cannot be broken down by month, or year in order to protect individuals' privacy on their individual settlement costs.
