

Appendix one: Hui, conferences, away-days, and staff events costing more than $10,000 since 27 November 2023, broken down by date, event name and purpose, number of attendees, venue, and total cost

Table notes:

- The data in this table is provided to the best of our ability and is approximate only. In some instances, travel costs have been based on standard travel rates rather than actual costs, due to the extensive effort that would be required to collate the data.
- The data in this table focuses on hui, conferences, away-days, and staff events, excluding training.

Date of event	Event name and purpose	Number of attendees	Venue	Cost ($)
2025/26	New Zealand Parole Board Annual Conference: This two-day event is part of ongoing professional development in relation to their role of making public safety decisions about the managed release of long-term prisoners. The conference provides an opportunity for members to discuss Parole Board practice, keep up to date with changes occurring in the criminal justice system and hear from guest speakers on relevant topics to help inform their decision-making.	42	Wharewaka Function Centre, Wellington	29,924
2025/26	Leaders' Forum: for managers to discuss key issues and understand the future direction of Corrections.	110	National Office, Wellington	43,428
2024/25	New Zealand Parole Board Annual Conference: This two-day event is part of ongoing professional development in relation to their role of making public safety decisions about the managed release of long-term prisoners. The conference provides an opportunity for members to discuss Parole Board practice, keep up to date with changes occurring in	33	Wharewaka Function Centre, Wellington	30,718

	the criminal justice system and hear from guest speakers on relevant topics to help inform their decision-making.
2023/24	Leaders' Forum: for managers to discuss key issues and understand the future direction of Corrections.	105	National Office, Wellington	41,348
2023/24	New Zealand Parole Board Annual Conference: This two-day event is part of ongoing professional development in relation to their role of making public safety decisions about the managed release of long-term prisoners. The conference provides an opportunity for members to discuss Parole Board practice, keep up to date with changes occurring in the criminal justice system and hear from guest speakers on relevant topics to help inform their decision-making.	30	Wharewaka Function Centre, Wellington	34,307
2023/24	National Māori Health Workforce Conference: was an opportunity for our Māori Health workforce at Corrections to come together and focus on professional development through a te ao Māori lens. Our Māori health workforce have specialist skills that contribute significantly to addressing the inequities that are faced by people in prison, in particular Māori. These training forums enable the growth and development of our workforce, provide opportunities to learn new skills, and to be able to engage with like-minded professionals across New Zealand.	Unknown	The Brentwood, Wellington	44,244
2023/24	Health Leaders Forum: is the leaders from the Health, Mental Health and Addictions frontline staff meeting to connect, access sessions to support	Unknown	The Brentwood, Wellington	38,046 their clinical practice as well as relevant updates from the National Office health team across a number of relevant subjects.

--	--	--	--	--