

Appendix A

Written Parliamentary Question 20273 (2025)

Table one: Department of Internal Affairs' total spend on flights in the 2024/25 financial year to date (including the Ministry for Ethnic Communities), broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$1,150,000
International flights	$169,000
Total	$1,319,000

Table two: Lotto New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2024/25 financial year to date, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$48,148
International flights	$97,171
Total	$145,319

Table three: Office of Film and Literature Classification's total spend on flights in the 2024/25 financial year to date, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$3,000
International flights	$5,900
Total	$8,900

Table four: Fire and Emergency New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2024/25 financial year to date, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$2,257,487
International flights	$175,403
Total	$2,432,890

Note: The airfares paid for trans-Tasman flights and south pacific travel are categorised as domestic travel by the Department of Internal Affairs, Lotto New Zealand and the Office of Film and Literature Classification. These areas are excluded from international travel flights in Tables one, two and three.

Written Parliamentary Question 20276 (2025)

Table one: Department of Internal Affairs' total spend on flights in the 2022/23 financial year (including the Ministry for Ethnic Communities), broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$3,877,000
International flights	$508,000
Total	$4,385,000

Table two: Lotto New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2022/23 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$55,894
International flights	$66,826
Total	$122,720

Table three: Office of Film and Literature Classification's total spend on flights in the 2022/23 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$4,600
International flights	$7,500
Total	$12,100

Table four: Fire and Emergency New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2022/23 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$2,882,122
International flights	$904,173
Total	$3,786,295

Note: The airfares paid for trans-Tasman flights and south pacific travel are categorised as domestic travel by the Department of Internal Affairs, Lotto New Zealand and the Office of Film and Literature Classification. These areas are excluded from international travel flights in Tables one, two and three.

Written Parliamentary Question 20279 (2025)

Table one: Department of Internal Affairs' total spend on flights in the 2021/22 financial year (including the Ministry for Ethnic Communities), broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$1,366,000
International flights	$104,000
Total	$1,470,000

Table two: Lotto New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2021/22 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$19,123
International flights	-
Total	$19,123

Table three: Office of Film and Literature Classification's total spend on flights in the 2021/22 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$12,200
International flights	$7,500
Total	$19,700

Table four: Fire and Emergency New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2021/22 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$1,477,420
International flights	$41,046
Total	$1,518,466

Note: The airfares paid for trans-Tasman flights and south pacific travel are categorised as domestic travel by the Department of Internal Affairs, Lotto New Zealand and the Office of Film and Literature Classification. These areas are excluded from international travel flights in Tables one, two and three.

Written Parliamentary Question 20280 (2025)

Table one: Department of Internal Affairs' total spend on flights in the 2020/21 financial year (including the Ministry for Ethnic Communities), broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$1,986,000
International flights	$13,000
Total	$1,999,000

Table two: Lotto New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2020/21 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$73,021
International flights	-
Total	$73,021

Table three: Office of Film and Literature Classification's total spend on flights in the 2020/21 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$6,000
International flights	-
Total	$6,000

Table four: Fire and Emergency New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2020/21 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$1,713,611
International flights	$4,770
Total	$1,718,381

Note: The airfares paid for trans-Tasman flights and south pacific travel are categorised as domestic travel by the Department of Internal Affairs, Lotto New Zealand and the Office of Film and Literature Classification. These areas are excluded from international travel flights in Tables one, two and three.

Written Parliamentary Question 20281 (2025)

Table one: Department of Internal Affairs' total spend on flights in the 2023/24 financial year (including the Ministry for Ethnic Communities), broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$2,201,000
International flights	$319,000
Total	$2,520,000

Table two: Lotto New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2023/24 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$59,825
International flights	$45,851
Total	$105,676

Table three: Office of Film and Literature Classification's total spend on flights in the 2023/24 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$8,900
International flights	-
Total	$8,900

Table four: Fire and Emergency New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2023/24 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$2,836,672
International flights	$614,610
Total	$3,451,282

Note: The airfares paid for trans-Tasman flights and south pacific travel are categorised as domestic travel by the Department of Internal Affairs, Lotto New Zealand and the Office of Film and Literature Classification. These areas are excluded from international travel flights in Tables one, two and three.

Written Parliamentary Question 20289 (2025)

Table one: Department of Internal Affairs' total spend on flights in the 2019/20 financial year (including the Ministry for Ethnic Communities), broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$2,202,000
International flights	$331,000
Total	$2,533,000

Table two: Lotto New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2019/20 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$68,939
International flights	$78,705
Total	$147,644

Table three: Office of Film and Literature Classification's total spend on flights in the 2019/20 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$16,000
International flights	$5,700
Total	$21,700

Table four: Fire and Emergency New Zealand's total spend on flights in the 2019/20 financial year, broken down between international and domestic flights (excluding GST, if any):

Travel type	Total spend
Domestic flights	$171,593
International flights	$2,498,372
Total	$2,669,965

Note: The airfares paid for trans-Tasman flights and south pacific travel are categorised as domestic travel by the Department of Internal Affairs, Lotto New Zealand and the Office of Film and Literature Classification. These areas are excluded from international travel flights in Tables one, two and three.