

Appendix one: Programmes and services expected to be extended to remand prisoners through the Corrections Rehabilitation Programmes – Extending to Remand Prisoners initiative in financial year 2026/27.

Internally delivered psychological programmes
Individual psychological assessment and treatment (as required for people considered to be at high risk of reoffending).
Short Violence Prevention Programme
Young Adult Intervention
Rehabilitation programmes
Short Rehabilitation Programme for Men
Short Rehabilitation Programme for Women
Non-offence focused programmes
HeadStart
Kia Rite
Mental health services
Mental health support intervention and support practice staff
Contracted services
Alcohol and Other Drugs Harm Minimisation
Te Pikinga
Tikanga Māori Motivational Programme

* The final selection and phasing of these programmes at each prison site will be refined through continued engagement and will respond to changes in the remand prison population and operational requirements over time.