Notes for Table 1:

- This data is extracted from a live data set as at 27 August 2026.
- Calendar month is based on the final court hearing date.
- Burglary offences are defined as all offences in ANZSOC division 06: Burglary. The Australian and New Zealand Standard Offence Classification is used to categorise offences into 17 divisions, within which subdivisions and groups exist. In New Zealand, ANZSOC v2.0.0 is used for all statistics published from July 2025 onwards. More information can be obtained from Stats NZ: aria.stats.govt.nz/aria/#ClassificationView:uri=http://stats.govt.nz/cms/ClassificationVersion/bNfA7dXFz2KGM0iJ
- The data provided is for convicted finalised charges in the District Court.
- Offence location is based on the location recorded in the Court's Case Management System (CMS). Only charges with an offence location recorded as "Kaeo" are included. Offence location information is supplied by New Zealand Police as part of the charging process and is not determined by the courts.
