

WPQ 55601 (2024): Further to WPQs 51902, 51900, 51904, 51903, 51899, 51905, 51907, 51901, and 51897 (2024), when the new immigration fees come into force on 1 October 2024, what proportion of the levy (either in respect of the individual visa types or globally) "funds a broad range of activities including maintenance costs of the immigration system, managing immigration risk and compliance, the attraction of migrants and supporting migrant settlement" and how much is for "the benefits that users of the system receive or the risks they create"?

Table: Allocation of levy funding across Immigration Services Multicategory appropriation

		$ million
Immigration New Zealand (INZ) Outputs and Other Department Levy Funding		2024/25	2025/26	2026/27	2027/28
INZ	Services for the Attraction of Migrants	8.950	9.449	9.731	10.051
INZ	Assessment and Processing Services	35.453	37.112	39.067	40.242
INZ	Settlement and Integration of Refugees and Other Migrants	28.630	28.737	29.522	30.327
INZ	Integrity and Security of the New Zealand Immigration System	85.833	88.964	92.100	94.941
Total INZ immigration levy funding		158.866	164.263	170.420	175.561
INZ Portfolio	Immigration Research Programme, including evaluation	2.200	2.200	2.200	2.200
INZ Portfolio	Immigration Policy Advice and Settlement Services to Ministers	4.888	4.897	4.881	4.877
INZ Portfolio	Services for the attraction of migrants (including investors)	1.670	3.147	3.147	3.147
INZ Portfolio	Regulation of Immigration Advisors	1.872	1.872	1.872	1.872
INZ Portfolio	ESOL in Schools (English for speakers of other language programmes)	50.302	50.302	50.302	50.302
Total Other Departments immigration levy		60.932	62.418	62.402	62.398
Total Immigration levy		219.798	226.681	232.822	237.959

Page 233 of MBIE's Annual Report 2022/23 provides the allocation of the levies for the immigration services and programmes users of the system benefit from and/or the risks they create (see here). The current levy allocation for 2023/24 will be released in MBIE's Annual Report.