

Appendix One: Amount spent on outsourced research or reports commissioned by Corrections, for the period 27 November 2023 to 21 February 2025, the purpose of the report and the provider.

| Name                                                                                               | Purpose                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Provider | Contract Amount                                      |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
| Deliver Better Outcomes for Victims                                                                | Evaluation of three place-based operational pilots to identify and test operational responses to known gaps in the system, as identified by victims and victim advocates:1. Safety planning and co-ordination (in Whangarei)2. Strengthen approach for child victims (in Manukau)3. Ensuring victims are heard in bail decision (in Whangarei) | Gravitas OPG    | $ 124,000 (paid for out of Justice Sector cluster funding) |
| Outcomes for Short Sentence Prisoners                                                              | Statistical analysis of service uptake and outcomes post-release for those receiving shorter sentences – specifically, interactions with other government agencies (including other justice sector interactions)                                                                                                                                           | Taylor Fry      | $ 82,000 (Policy, Research & Performance budget)           |
| Rapid Review of the Department of Corrections' Funded Community Residential AOD Treatment Services | Review looking at the relevancy of AOD residential treatment services for those in Corrections' management, how well the referral pathways prioritised and managed access for people needing residential treatment, and how well the services have achieved their intended outcomes.                                                                       | Litmus          | $ 50,000                                                   |
| Sexual Harassment Independent Review                                                               | Review to help identify how the Department can strengthen the prevention of workplace sexual harassment and better respond to harassment when it occurs                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Litmus          | $120,988                                                   |
| Evaluation of the Alert Programme Pilot                                                            | Evaluation of the programme                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Litmus          | $ 80,000                                                   |