

WPQ 11367 (2024) Table 1Number of revocations between November 2023 and 15 May 2024 by month

Month of Revocation	Individual Firearms Licences Revoked	Dealer Firearms Licences Revoked
November 2023	81	0
December 2023	74	0
January 2024	83	0
February 2024	76	0
March 2024	54	1
April 2024	83	0
1-15 May 2024	33	1
Sum	484	2
Total distinct count of Licence holder	482	2

WPQ 11367 (2024) Table 2

Number of revocations between November 2023 and 15 May 2024 by reason for revocation

Section of Act Reason and Explanation	Total
22H(a): Disqualifying offences	3
22H(b): Disqualifying - Protection orders	6
23(1)(a): if a person is not over the age of 16 years	1
24(1)(b): if a person does not enable Police to inspect their firearms storage facilities and therefore Police are not able to be satisfied that they have storage, or if they do, Police are not satisfied that the person is compliant with storage requirements	1
24(2): Access is reasonably likely to be obtained by a person whose firearms licence has been revoked, is not fit and proper or is disqualified from holding for a f/lic	1
24A(1)(a): if a person is charged with or has been convicted of an offence in New Zealand or overseas that is punishable by a term of imprisonment	206
24A(1)(b): if a person is charged with or has been convicted of an offence under the Arms Act 1983	24
24A(1)(c): if a person is charged with or has been convicted of an offence against (i) section 231A of the Crimes Act 1961; or (ii) the Game Animal Council Act 2013; or (iii) the Wildlife Act 1953; or (iv) the Wild Animal Control Act 1977	4
24A(1)(d)(i): if a person has, or has had at any time, a temporary protection order made against them under section 79 of the Family Violence Act 2018	17
24A(1)(d)(ii): if a person has, or has had at any time, a temporary protection order made against them under section 14 of the Domestic Violence Act 1995, they may be deemed to be not a fit and proper person	2
24A(1)(e): if a person has inflicted, or is inflicting, family violence against another person and that other person has grounds under the Family Violence Act 2018 to apply for a protection order in respect of that violence	76
24A(1)(g): if a person has engaged in any conduct involving non-compliance with any requirements of (i) this Act; or (ii) any regulations made under this Act; or (iii) any conditions to which a permit, licence, or endorsement previously issued	176
24A(1)(h): if a person shows, or has recently shown, symptoms of a mental or physical illness or injury that may adversely affect their ability to safely possess firearms	139
24A(1)(i): if a person abuses alcohol, or is dependent on alcohol, to an extent that affects detrimentally their judgement or behaviour	105
24A(1)(j): if a person uses drugs (illegal or legal) in a way that affects detrimentally their judgement or behaviour	10
24A(1)(k): if a person is a member of, or has close affiliations with, a gang or an organised criminal group	16
24A(1)(n): if a person satisfies any criteria prescribed in regulations made under Section 74(1)(bb)	2
24A(2)(c): In determining whether a person is a fit and proper person to be in possession of a firearm or an airgun, the member of the Police may take into	190

account any other relevant matters the member of the Police considers appropriate
27(2)(a): Commissioned Officers revocation; Commissioned Officers revocation - Access	1
60A(1)(c): Access is reasonably likely to be obtained by a person whose application for a firearms licence has been refused, revoked, not fit and proper and temporarily suspended	18
Sum	998