Overarching file note:

This spreadsheet lists the Rules, Amendments, Exemptions, Transport Instruments, Class Exemptions and the lifting of suspensions. We have not included notices we issued under the Submarine Cables and Pipelines Protection Act 1996 which is administered by the Ministry of Transport. The notices are typically only issued for a limited time period to enable a particular activity to take place, and would require significant effort to Signed 17 March 2023 but not yet in-force.

This Part is not yet in force. Several things must happen before it is in force. The Cape Town Agreement must reach the threshold number of States and vessels. When it has, then the Agreement will enter into force after a transition period of 1 year. The entry into force of Part 404 will be at the same time as the Agreement comes into force and be notified in the NZ Gazette soon after the Agreement has reached its threshold.
